

JURO Staff Application

Before you apply, please consider the following requirements for the position:

- You will edit at least one paper and its abstract as well as maintain contact with the author
- You must be able to attend the 2011 CURO Symposium on April 4th
- You must be available to attend all meetings and meet all deadlines

Name: _____

Major/Minor: _____

GPA: _____ Expected graduation date: _____

Local Address: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Are you in the Honors Program? Y N

With this application, please submit a cover letter explaining your interest in JURO, prior editing experience (if applicable), and how participation in the journal will contribute to your academic or research goals.

If you intend to apply for a web editor position, please include that in your cover letter and include information about web design experience.

If you are seeking a position on the executive board, please discuss your leadership experience and style, as well as how you think you will contribute to JURO's mission of publishing outstanding undergraduate research.

In addition, please attach:

- A current résumé highlighting honors, activities, and other relevant information
- Unofficial transcript
- Revised editing sample (posted on the JURO website)

Turn in all application materials to the CURO Office (203 Moore College) by 5 PM on March 4th, 2011.